VEW YORK AMERICANS WHITE-WASH THE SENATORS.

Bonch Hits on Pitcher Patten in Two Innings World's Champions Shut Out hy Philadelphias Chicagos and Detroits Win From Their Opponents.

By heating the Washingtons yesterday the New York Americans took an undisputed hold on fourth place. St. Louis fell back, being beaten by Chicago, and Detroit, by heating Cleveland, went into fifth place. The Bostons were shut out by Philadelphia.

NEW YORK (A. L.), 5; WASHINGTON, 0. American League Park, with its wide expanses, looked like a green carpet yesterday, and the New Yorks put the Washingtons on the carpet. The home team shut out the tailenders, who ran foul of their eleventh straights defeat. Patten, a good pitcher, taeed the New Yorks, and they bunched hits on him very effectively in the third and fourth innings. That it "is never too late" was proven conclusively by the New Yorks, as all of their five runs were made after two were conf.

innings. That it is never too late was proven conclusively by the New Yorks, as all of their five runs were made after two were cuit.

The batting of the Washingtons was mighty weak for professionals—not so much in the scarcity of hits, but in the blindly groping manner the visiting batsmen went at the ball. They stretched and strained, and seemed to have no idea whatever where the ball was coming. Hughes used a telling mixture on the soporific Senatorial swingers. He had variety in abundance, and his conglomeration of drops, slows and fast highs dazed the zestless zero collectors from the Capitol. There were a couple of bobbles in New York's fielding, but they cost nothing, and were quite overcast by the meritorious fielding of the locals. Elberfeld was the bell cow of the bunch. He opened with an error, but after that was at once a stone wall and a shadow a stone wall so far as hits getting by him was concerned and a shadow in the lightness and quickness with which he got over ground. A couple of times a cog slipped in New York's inside machinery—once when Williams, with three balls and no strikes was lured into hitting at the next ball, a quick peturn right over the plate by Patten, and the other when Fultz overran third base on a fumble by the shortstop and was put out. But on the whole the New York batting showed a better eye and a smoother system than when the team was here last.

The first inning was not promising. Convoyled off with a scratch single, but the others could not get him around. Moran threw out all three batters in the second. The Washingtons had men on bases in both of these innings. In the second McCormick was on third with only one out, but Elberfeld's throw to the plate of Kittredge's grounder squelched him. In the third inning, only to be forced by Hughes. Hughes in turn was forced by Conroy. Fultz did better. He bunted safely and very artistically. Keeler's single filled the bases, and two runs came in on Elberfeld's hard drive to right for a base. Anderson began the fraitful fourth by WASBINGTON. NEW YORK.

NATIONAL LEAGUE GAMES. In a Light Bitting Contest McGraw's Men Shut Out the Bostons.

The McGrawized New Yorks took a third game from the Bostons yesterday, shutting them out, and the Brooklyns did the same to Philadelphia. Chicago again beat the once crack Pittsburgs, and St. Louis fell before Cincinnati. The results:

New York, 2; Boston, 0. Brooklyn, S; Philadelphia, O. Cincinnati, S; St. Louis, S. Chicago, S; Pittsburg, S. STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

NEW YORK (N. L.), 2; BOSTON (N. L.), 0. BOSTON. May 2 .- New York had all the luck to-day, and shut the locals out by the score of 2 to 0. Taylor and Pittenger twirled magnificently, allowing only four hits each, and these were scattered. The fielding of the Boston team was very erratic, Raymer being guilty of two giaring errors, while Delehanty allowed an easy grounder to get by him. The Boston third baseman later man at second. Abbaticchio made several beautiful plays. McJann ran back of third and captured a fly that was hung up by the east wind, and Warner got away with three high fouls back of the plate.

In the first inning, with two strikes gone, Browne hit an easy one plumb into Raymer's hands, but he muffed it, the batter reaching first base safely. Devlin waited successfully, and McGann bunted to Pittenger. The latter had plenty of time to cut Browne off at third, but he threw low and the ball rolled toward the bleachers, Browne scoring. The next three men up went out in succession.

In the second inning Gilbert walked, and reached second on Warner's out at first. Taylor fanned and Browne drove a pretty one to centre, Gilbert coming home. Devlin forced Browne at second. The visitors did not have another chance to score after the second inning. Boston's only show to get a run was in the eighth. Delehanty walked and Raymer singled. Moran hit to Dahlen, and Delehanty was forced at third. Carney, who batted for Pittenger, and Geier were easy outs, Taylor to McGann. The score: first base safely. Devlin waited successfully,

BROOKLYN, 3: PHILADELPHIA (N. L.), 0.
PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—Brooklyn began its series of four games with the Philadelphias to-day in the presence of 2,958 persons and shut out the locals. Cronin's clever work in the box was responsible for the victory. He was only found for five scattered hits. The one error made by Strang, a missed grounder, was not of the serious kind.
The Philadelphia's errors did not count in the run getting. In the fourth Titus misjudged Dillon's fly, which counted for two bases and cost a run. The Philadelphia's new acquisitions, Doyle and Van Buren, played in the game, but they were also Cronin's victims.
The score: PHILADELPHIA. BROOKLYN.

STIRRING FINISHES THE RULE.

OSTRICH WINS THE MONTAGUE STAKES FROM CARELESS.

Lord of the Valley Takes Highweight Handleap-James R. Keene's Kohtnoor Graduates From the Maiden Three-Year-Old Class-Four Favorites Lose.

Hair-raising finishes prevailed in five out of the six races run at Jamaica track yesterday afternoon. More than 10,000 racegoers were on hand, attracted by the fine weather and an unusually good card for Monday. Four favorites were beaten, however, which served to put a damper on the enthusiasm of the crowd. The track was fast and the The feature was the Montague Stakes at Leeds a Major Daingerfield at 7 to 5, but the Thomas entry went back to 2 to 1, while Daingerfield closed the choice at 13 to 10. The Boston Stable's three-year-old Ostrich opened at 5 to 1 but was hammered down to 16 to 5, while James R. Keene's Careless, a maiden, was a 12 to 1 outsider. The start was excellent, Burns taking Careless to the front. Going up the backstretch Buttons became the runner up, with Ostrich third under a tight pull. Daingerfield and Andy Williams trailed, neither showing much speed. Careless drew away from Buttons on the farturn but Fuller then challenged with Ostrich, who hooked up with the Keene gelding for a long, hard drive through the stretch. In the last twenty-five yards Careless hung in his stride and Ostrich got up in a great rush to win by a head in 1:47 3-5. Andy Williams ran over the others and was third, ten lengths behind. The Musketeer was a hot favorite in the highweight handicap at five and a half fur-ongs, holding steady at 2 to 1. Bardolph was played to beat him at 13 to 5. Lord of the Valley, 12 to 1, rushed to the front at the start, but The Musketeer was not to be denied and together they raced neck and neck to the head of the stretch. Bullman put Lord of the Valley under a fierce drive, and got him home winner by a head, Schoharie, 10 to 1, closing so strongly that he beat the leg weary favorite by two lengths. The rest of the field was strung out, badly beaten.

W. C. Daly's Madrigal, 8 to 1, after a heartbreaking duel for half a mile with H. K. Vingut's Belle of Setauket, 10 to 1, got the verdict in the second race for maiden twoyear-old fillies and geldings, five furlongs, by a neck in 1:02 3-5. Belle of Setauket was second, a half a length before the favorite,

Mart Mullen, 12 to 1, made all the pace in the first race at six furlongs and beat Moro-kanta, 20 to 1, a head in 1:14% Elsie L., 15 to 1, was five lengths away. All Gold, the odds-on favorite, was shut in early and McCue never had a chance to get him going.

The most sensational finish of the day was in the fifth event, for two-year-olds at five furlongs. Frank Farrell's First Born, 8 to 5 favorite, won by a couple of inches from Sydney Paget's Ben Laia, 5 to 1, who was a head in front of W. L. Oliver's Hawtrey, 3 to 1, with H. F. Meyer's Muozon, 5 to 1, a head back. The time was 1:02 3-5.

Redfern put up a magnificent ride on James R. Keene's Kohinoor, 11 to 5 favorite, in the last race for maiden three-year-olds at six furlongs. He was in all sorts of pockets but, hugging the rail, he managed to get through in the stretch, the Kingston colt winning by a length and a half from E. R. Thomas's

-News Notes. Matters are at a standstill in the Intercollegiate Golf Association regarding this year's championship tournament. Harvard has obtained from the Hunt Club permission to have the tournament at Myopia, a highly valued concession, but while Yale is said to be non-committal, Princeton, Pennsylvania, Columbia and Cornell, the remaining members, would prefer a selection that would not entail so much travelling and expense. There is no objection to the Myopia links as a fine test of golf, but the college boys hereabouts shrink at the cost of the trip.

"Everybody knows," said Frank O. Reinhart, the intercollegiate champion, yesterday, "that few of the college boys have the money for the trip to Myopia, especially as they would have to go into Boston each night. Princeton will favor a course more accessible Princeton will favor a course more accessible to a greater number."

Myopia is very handy for the Harvard players, but, as their men have won four of the six team matches, it is thought that they will not insist on having the event on a Boston course. If Yale could obtain the permission of the New Haven Country Club, its fine eighteen hole course would be a fine place for the tournament. The selection would not give an undue advantage to Yale, as its players use the New Haven Golf Club links, while the Country Club is the faculty and townspeople's links and practically unvisited by the students.

The Pennsylvania boys say that the Philadelphia Country Club would like the tournament. A number of courses in the M. G. A. may be had for the asking, but none would be in better condition in the fall, when the event is scheduled to take place, or more accessible than that of the Fox Hills Golf Club. Matters, however, are at a standstill until President U. A. Murdock calls the committee together for a vote.

Juniors are not under the ban at the Exmoor Country Club, for the directors have lowered the age limit for regular members from 21 to 18 years. H. Chandler Egan, who is now 20 years of age, has taken advantage of the new ruling and changed his membership from junior to regular.

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK.

JOCKEY W. HENNESSY HAS HIS FOOT BADLY CRUSHED.

His Mount, Falbala, Jammed to the Rail, Throws Out a Stife and Is Placed in Slings-Barenetta's Entry Refused -Irish Lad in Favor for Metropolitan

The midget jockey, W. Hennessy, had narrow escape from serious injury in the second race at Jamaica yesterday. He had the mount on R. E. Watkins's Falbala, a after the start he took the rail. It was a big field, and in the rush for advantageous positions there was plenty of crowding and rough riding. The filly was soon jammed on the fence, was jumped on behind and Hennessy had his left foot badly crushed. But the little boy did not lose his head, for he would have been dashed over the rails. He pulled Falbala up with a quick tug at the bridle and let her hobble to the judge's stand on three legs, for she had thrown out a stiffe. The boy called to a trackman for assistance when the stewards had given him permission to dismount, and as he rolled out of the saddle he was in great pain. The man carried him in his arms to the paddock, while Falbala was led off to her stable, where she was promptly placed in slings. R. W. Nelson's Baronetta, a filly by Dr. MacBride—Banker's Daughter, was a starter n this race. She was so green that as soon as she got out of the paddock she stuck her toes in the track and refused to budge. A man armed with a whip opened hostilities, whereupon the filly did her best to throw Wade over the fence into the infield. After a delay Baronetta started for the post, where she crazy that it was impossible to make her break with the others. She was consequently left at the barrier, and the stewards decided to refuse her entry until such time as she has been properly schooled. Barring this event Starter Cassidy showed marked improve-ment with his "walk up" system, there being ittle time lost at the post and all the fields peing sent away in good alignment.

In starting Careless, a three-year-old son of St. Leonard—Indifference, in the Montague Stakes, James Rowe, trainer for the Keenes landing the purse. In the event of victor; Careless, whose weight in the Metropoli-tan Handicap is 87 pounds, would have picked up a four pound penalty, which with five more pounds overweight would have permitted a certain first class jockey to have the leg up in Thursday's big race at Morris Park. Careless came within a few inches of perfecting Rowe's plans, and those who were in the know played him across the boards then the odds had boomed to 12 to 1. Ostrich by his victory yesterday, and also his success will have to pick up four pounds penalty for the West Chester race, making his impose 92 pounds. Major Daingerfield in yesterday' race lost many followers. He was perfectly handled by Odom, but was beaten thoroughly at the three-quarter pole.

As the running of the Metropolitan draws near the trainers at Jamaica are narrowing Yesterday the general impression seemed o be that H. B. Duryea's Irish Lad would be returned the winner. A number of trainers saw the famous Candlemas colt work a mile at Sheepshead Bay on Sunday morning it 1:45, his head swinging all the way. With any kind of good racing luck, these wise men say the race is "in" as far as the winner last year's Brooklyn Handicap is concerne the race is "in" as far as the winner of But he will have a great lot of horses to beat thoritative source that the Whitney estate will assume the entries of all the horses not made void by the death of W. C. Whitney. These entries include nominations for stakes to be run both on the local tracks and at Saratoga, nd the horses will run in the name and colors of H. B. Duryea. The sale of some of the Whitney horses will take place in the paddock at Morris Park next Saturday. Among those announced as ready to be sold are Reliable, Leonidas, Inflexible and a number of two-

John J. Ryan, the "get rich quick man," reappeared at the track yesterday. He rode down in his big automobile, beating Leo Mayer, in his $8,000 machine, and several would be competitors, who raced over the road from Long Island City, at railway speed.

Bookmaker Eddie Burke, who was a passenwhich came within an ace of going through successfully. She opened at 50 to 1 and was quietly backed down to 10 to 1, being played all over the ring by some hustling commis sioners. Bill Daly's Madrigal spoiled the coup, however, by beating the Belle by a william Easton, the well known auctioneer of thoroughbreds, returned from Europe yesterday in time to see his Sir Modred filly Danseuse, beaten in the second race. Mr. Easton visited the French tracks and is loud in his praises of the turf in that country. Tom Monahan had a supposed good thing in this race in his filly Flava, by Henry of Navarre-Flavia, who was played from 50 30. She ran a fair race, but was short and green.

Willie Sims, the once famous colored jockey, had his first mount in many months when he had the leg up on William Astor Chanler's Escurial, in the third race. Sims was two pounds overweight, riding at 109 pounds. He also rode Mr. Chanler's Remittal, a three-year-old colt, by Requital-Fayida, who broke down badly in the last ace. Mr. Chanler was at the track for the first time this year. Caesar Young, the former English athlete, who is now a wealthy racetrack stockholder, owner and bookmaker, was a visitor for the first time since his arrival in the East. He received a telegram during the day that one of his mares has just dropped a colt to Cunard, now owned by him. Young has several horses here and will race them in the near future. He says he will remain in the East until the close of the season, when he will go back to the Coast.

E. E. Smathers was not on hand to see his colors carried for the first time here this season by Grand Opera in the highweight handicap, and it was said that the stable did not bet on the Wagner horse because of Canada Jack Adkins cleaned up again with his useful Hastings colt, Lord of the Valley. The Musketeer's defeat cost the talent a barrel. The Masetto horse seems to have gone away back.

When Schoharie ran second in the high weight his owner, Jack McGinnis, was happy. Last winter McGinnis tried to give Schoharie to a Coney Island police sergeant for a saddle horse, but the minion of the aw declined with thanks. Burns has been engaged to ride James R Keene's Toboggan in the Metropolitan Handicap, while Odom will have the mount on Mamie Worth. Sydney Paget's Waterford, who was backed down to 4 to 1 in the last race, is by Watercress Sekanet. Redfern, who rode the winner, James R. Keene's Kohinoor, was allowed to take the mount by E. R. Thomas, who placed H. Phillips on his own colt, Bound Brook, finishing second. Frank Farrell's First Born, the winner of the fifth race, is a big, sluggish colt, who needs the whip in large doses. Cormack put his whip away after taking the lead at the head of the stretch and the colt began to loaf. would have been beaten in another jump because of this error by the jockey. INTERNATIONAL CHESS. Mieses Defeats Pillsbury in the Fifth Round -Interesting Play. CAMBRIDGE SPRINGS, Pa., May 2.—The fifth round of the international chess tourns

CAMBRIDGE SPRINGS, Fa., May 2.—The fifth round of the international chess tournament, now in progress at the Hotel Rider in this city, was duly played to-day, the play being of rather interesting nature on all the boards. The principal features, however, were Marshall's excellent play against Champion Lasker and Mieses's strong exhibition against Pillsbury. Lawrence lost his game by exceeding the time limit.

At the close of the session Jan owski practically held the lead, and he has an adjourned game in hand against Showalter.
Next to the Parisian are Lasker, Marshall, Mieses and Teichmann who have won four games each. Following is a summary of
to-day's play:

Mieses beat Pillsbury in a Petroff's defence after smoves. Lasker and Marshall drew a Sicillan defence after 45 moves. Lawrence lost to Fox Sicillan defence, after 25 moves. Schlechter prettily disposed of Napier in a Vienna opening after 21 moves. Telehmann downed Marco after 32 moves.
In a Petroff's defence. Delmar defeated Hodges in a Ruy Lopez in 26 moves. Showalter and Janowski adjourned a Ruy Lopez.
